NEVERSON This is more than just a recipe book. It is also like a manual on making smoothies. After reading it you have useful information on how to make smoothies, the tools/equipment to use the fruits and veggies to choose. The author goes further and informs the reader on the nutritional benefits of the main ingredient used in each smoothie. She also explains why you should use smoothies instead of other forms of preparing meals and refreshments, and what you should put in them. Also useful are the tips the author provides on a healthy lifestyle. Nothing new but a necessary reminder that food alone does not make a healthy person. You need a balanced diet, exercise, enough sleep. However, for other truly enjoyable and fun-giving smoothie recipes the reader may also want to try these:
