I got this as a birthday gift for my boyfriend. We are moving to Oregon and he loves beer so it was a winner! I highly recommend it.

By Edmond Cawley
This is chock full of information on microbreweries around Oregon, some information about how they were started, by whom and why. It starts out with some basics, some information about the authors, then gets into information on the breweries. There's even some rating sheets included that readers can use to rate breweries that they like. There listings of breweries around the state and festivals during the time that the book was written. This book was very helpful to a novice like me. This book was well thought out, well written that's easily understood by even beginner beer drinkers and well organized.

This is a fun, easy-to-read guide to Oregon Breweries. Though we have yet to take the trip ourselves, this is a fun and informative read for any True Brew Fan. It just brings the places to life and makes you want to go there all the more. Enjoy!!

Whether shopping the cities, fishing the lakes, skiing the mountains, or combing the beaches, Oregon has much to offer. Whatever you do and wherever you do it, there is a brewery, a brewpub, or a brew destination close by. Experience the feel, the look, and the people of Oregon's Brewing Industry. You taste and review the beer, or not, if you prefer, but let Oregon Brew Tour guide you through the history, the ambiance, the buildings, the festivals, and the people that make the Oregon Craft Beer community special. From Astoria to Joseph, From Portland to Ashland, Along the Coast or the Columbia, and Over the Cascades, Experience ALL Oregon Craft Beers have to offer. Take the Tour!
