Swahn I am so happy I bought this book, I have, to date, made several of the wonderful recipes and have had compliments on all of them, I have baked so many of the recipes that I had to get them out of the house, so my neighbor is even more happy that I purchased The Pillsbury Bake-Off Contest Cookbook. Thank You to all the contributors. 2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Disappointed in book's content By Texaswomyn I thought this book was a book of baked goods: desserts, breads, muffins, etc. because the cover has a picture of a great looking dessert. Instead, it's winners of all categories of the 42nd Pillsbury Bake-Off Contest. So I'm aggravated at myself because I didn't read the fine print, and a bit aggravated at Pillsbury for not putting a picture of a savory dish as well as a dessert on the cover. As far as the recipes themselves, I don't like it when a cookbook primarily exists to sell the company's products. Many of these recipes require the use of refrigerated cookie dough, or cooked Italian chicken, crunchy granola bars, etc. Thumbing through this book, the prepared products are not ones I keep on hand, and none of the recipes that use them look good enough for me to spend the extra money and time to purchase them. Very disappointed in this book. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good recipe book By Carol Adams Gift for my daughter. Good recipe book.

Discover the secrets of Pillsbury Bake-Off winners The Pillsbury Bake-Off is an all-American institution; a 56-year-old contest for real home cooks from around the nation, all vying for a $1 million grand prize. For the 42nd Bake-Off, 100 finalists converged to work their magic in 100 mini-kitchens set up in a single ballroom. In the end, a grand prize victor emerged, but all of the finalists presented dishes that were amazingly simple to make . . . and simply amazing. This exciting cookbook collects all 100 of these winning recipes and, for the first time, profiles all 100 of the inventive cooks who created them. Ranging over six contest categories; Wake Up to Breakfast, Dinner Made Easy, Brand New You, Cooking for Two, Simple Snacks, and Weekends Made Special; the deliciously easy recipes you'll find inside are sure to be winners with your family and friends. Open the book and find: The $1 million grand prize recipe, Baked Chicken and Spinach Stuffing, from Anna Ginsberg of Austin, Texas 99 other winning recipes, including Rise 'n Shine Lattice Pizza, Southwestern Chicken-Biscuit Pot Pie, and Peanut Butter Truffle Tart A photo and profile of each recipe creator, along with a full-color picture of every dish Lots of inspiration to help you come up with your own $1 million recipe!
