This book is full of wonderful recipes. I would have given it 5 stars but this is the second one I've bought because the first one just started dropping it's pages! I'm hoping that this one will hold together.

More than 250 amazing recipes using mixes to create terrific cakes, pies, cookies and bars. Every recipe has that "homemade from scratch" flavor. In no time, you can add a few everyday ingredients to mixes to create spectacular new desserts. These aren't the recipes you see everyday. They're unique. They're different. And, they're the fastest, best and easiest way to fabulous sweets.

About the Author
Lia Wilson is a mom in a very busy family, an IBM marketing communications specialist, a cookbook author, a baker and a cake decorator, a volunteer and a gardener, but most of all, she's a mom who believes in making memories. The kind of memories she creates are those you can taste and smell and remember for a lifetime.
