This is a pre-1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality. Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process. Though we have made best efforts - the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience. We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide.

About the Author William D. Booth has more than 37 years' experience in building materials sales, metal building sales, and running his own company specializing in metal building sales and construction. He is the author of three other books, including one on boating published by Cornell Maritime Press; Marketing Strategies for Design-Build Contracting, from Chapman Hall; and Selling Commercial and Industrial Construction Projects, published by Van Nostrand Reinhold.
