Maggie Mayhew : Tarts Pies before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Tarts Pies:

The art of baking irresistible sweet and savoury pastries, from wonderfully simple to seriously indulgent, with 20 recipes and 100 photographs.

About the AuthorMaggie Mayhew is a full-time freelance cookery writer and home economist, contributing to several national women's magazines. Previously she was Cookery Editor of Home Magazine and Deputy Food and Wine Editor of Living magazine. She now lives in the country and spends her spare time tending a large allotment which produces fresh organic fruit and vegetables for use in her recipes all year round. Other published works by Maggie Mayhew include The World Encyclopedia of Fruit and Preserves (both Lorenz Books), Piece of Cake (Barron's), and Whip (Laurel Glen Publishing)
