Best Chinese Cookbook I've Ever FoundBy monareneThis is the best Chinese cookbook I've ever found and I have about 50 of them. I don't know if there's already an idiot's guide to Chinese cooking out there, but this book would serve as a useful substitute. It's so explicit in the step by step directions and photos it's like watching a time release video. The dumpling recipe and toffee apple recipe were my favorites.

Hsiung shows how to prepare and cook an inspiring range of Chinese dishes from favourites such as Wonton Soup and Peking Duck to lesser known recipes such as Bon-bon Chicken and Szechuan Aubergine. All techniques are clearly described. '
