The slow cooker is a handy appliance which helps you prepare delicious meals, without spending too much time behind the kitchen counter. The benefit of slow-cooking from a Thai Slow Cooker Cookbook is that it works on "one-pot" principles and, therefore, it requires minimal food preparation. The slow cooker will easily turn simple ingredients into a high-delicious dish. A few meat cuts, some cooking liquid and spices at your own choice will be just enough for than I-cannot-believe-you-have-cooked-it meal. Slow cooking is a new cooking concept that implies several things: slow food cooking over three hours, constant cooking temperature, weather high or low and better flavor exchange between the ingredients. These characteristics guarantee softer and juicier meat cuts as well as the veggies imbued with flavors. Slow cooking from a Thai Slow Cooker Cookbook is perfect because your food will not burn or be over dried and it is great for dissolving the connective tissues like those in vegetables, for example.
